DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claims 25-40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Clark et al (US 5,713,853).

Claim 25-27 and 40: Clark et al disclose in Figures 24-26 a medical device comprising a shaft (702); an initially cylindrically shaped delivery member (706); a therapeutic agent delivery lumen (710) connected to a therapeutic agent source; a retention member (704); and a therapeutic agent source being a syringe which is capable of applying negative pressure.

Claims 28 and 29: Clark et al disclose in column 7, line 18-column 8, line 47 the delivery member being formed of a porous, degradable material.

Claims 30 and 31: Clark et al disclose in Figure 24 the delivery member configured to conform to the internal contour of the target body lumen when expanded.

Claims 32, 33, 34 and 35: Clark et al disclose in Figure 25 the proximal and distal ends of the delivery member being tapered end caps.

W

Art Unit: 3767

Claim 36: Clark et al disclose in column 14, line 2-4 the delivery member having a length between 5mm and 40 mm.

Claims 37, 38 and 39: Clark et al disclose in Figure 25 the shaft having a wire lumen for receiving a guidewire which extends into the delivery member.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 1/26/2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Clark et al disclose in Figure 24 a delivery member which from its proximal to distal end has a continuous cylindrical configuration. Furthermore, in disclosing that a syringe may be used as the therapeutic agent delivery mechanism, Clark et al disclose a mechanism that is fully capable of applying negative pressure.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
